WEB DEVELOPMENT

With 1 year of experience in web design, I've embarked on an exciting journey into full-stack development, specializing in e-commerce like dynamic projects. My passion lies in crafting captivating animated websites to enhance user engagement. Notably, I showcased my skills as a front-end developer by participating in the global Techwiz 4 competition, where I created an impressive e-commerce website featured in my portfolio. I am dedicated to pushing the boundaries of web development to deliver compelling and dynamic online experiences.
